

Sunshine again,
Little cold wind,
Moonlight over window,
Will you be with me again!

Dear global audience and Vietnamese readers who go with me in 2021, all friends and honey!

We re going to close the fantastic year 2021 and delighted to make further steps into the scientific doors of the new year 2022. So let me express full and warm thanks to all my friends , global and local audiences, most of them are colleagues who spent much time and efforts for science and publishing. Totally our website has received more than 230 thousands visits from over 62 countries. I am sure that our articles will be initial prospects for necessary actions. Therefore, I am looking forward to seeing more innovative papers produced in the coming year 2022!
Wish a prosperous year to all!
